MRS LUTHERA M. WILSON.

Mrs. Wilson was born in West Newbury April 4, 1831 and passed away from this life in the early morn of Jan. 29, 1922. She was the daughter of the late Dudley Carleton, and the last survivor of ten children, all of whom lived to advanced old age. She was a graduate in the classical course of old Newbury Seminary and for some years a teacher.

Oct. 18, 1854 she was united in marriage to Kimball K. Wilson of Boston, a native of Corinth. About 1880 he retired from his business and they came to Bradford and purchased the place and erected the fine residence on the hill at the West side of the village, where for over forty years she made her home. Mr. Wilson died very suddenly in June, 1893. Although financial reverses came in where her funds were invested, Mrs. Wilson still maintained her home until the infirmities of age caused her to sell it in the spring of 1921. She was very active and retained the acute faculties of her mind and attended to her business matters to the last. A great reader and deep student she kept well informed of all the current events. Her last sickness was only of three weeks duration, and she felt most grateful that her last days could be passed in the home she had planned and built, which is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hastings, both of whom were seemingly as kind and cared for as if she was their own mother. The only near relatives are several nieces and nephews. The funeral services were at the home Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. A. Lytle, assisted by Dr. T. P. Frost. Four nephews acted as bearers. Interment was in the family lot of Bradford cemetery, and Arthur E. Hale was in charge.

Card of Thanks.

In this way we would thank the friends and neighbors who so generously assisted us during the sickness and death of our father; for the sympathy expressed and flowers sent. Mrs. H. N. and P. S. Sisco, Mr. and Mrs. George Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Smith J. Sisco.

Two Dartmouth students skated from Hanover to Piermont up the river one day last week, stopping over night at Hotel Low and skating back next day. They report excellent skating from Thetford to Hanover.

LEANDER WALLACE DICKEY.

After a lingering illness of several years, passed peacefully to the life beyond Saturday morning, Feb. 4th, at the family residence in Reading, Mass.

Mr. Dickey, son of William and Martha T. Dickey of Bradford, passed his 69th year in June 1921. The earlier part of his life was spent in Bradford, where he was highly respected and very popular among his business associates and now the older residents of his home town. The later years, before disease undermined his strong constitution and forced him to retire from active service, were spent travelling through Eastern United States, where he was well and favorably known by many business houses. His greatest regret during the last years of his illness was that he was not able to follow his usual routes of travel and visit the scenes of his earlier associations. Always an active man, the enforced quiet palled upon him, but without complaint he bore up bravely and cheerfully until the call to the new life summoned him home.

He is survived by his wife Eva A. Dickey, Reading, Mass.; daughter, Colema D. Saunders, Seattle, Washington; three sons, Leander A. Dickey of Boston, Mass.; Pearl H. Dickey of Bradford and Hazen G. Dickey of Reading, Mass.

The funeral service was conducted at his home Monday, Feb. 6th at 3 p. m. by Rev. Henry J. Kilbourne, formerly of Bradford. The beautiful floral tributes of the many friends helped to emphasize the peaceful rest from a long period of suffering of loving husband and father.

The body was accompanied by three sons to Bradford, where a short service for relatives and friends was held at the Chapel on Tuesday at 4 p. m. before interment.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE NEW COMMANDMENT: Jesus said:—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. John 13:34-35.
JOY FOR WEEPING:—His anger endureth but a moment: in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.—Psalm 30:5.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The minister will begin next Sunday morning a series of sermons under the general title: "What is Essential to the Christian Life." The series will continue to Easter Sunday. The subject for next Sunday will be: "What is Faith?" Anyone seeking to know more about the essentials of Christianity should plan to attend these services. The treatment of the topics will be practical.
 Bible school at noon. The attendance is increasing each week. There are classes for men and women. We aim at an average attendance of 100 by Easter.

Motion picture service at 7 o'clock. The service will be in recognition of Lincoln Sunday. The minister will give a brief address on Lincoln, followed by the two reel picture: "Tender Memories." It shows one of those excursions of Lincoln out on the firing line near Washington, where he watched the fighting, and saw a soldier erecting a rude cross over the grave of his comrade. It brought memories of experiences that went far to make Lincoln the Man. Everyone should see this picture.

There will be a joint meeting of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs in the vestry Tuesday at 7 p. m. Mr. Lytle will show by the reflectoscope some pictures obtained while in "Y" work in France. Eats and an hour of games will follow. All boys' and girls' of the clubs may bring a friend.

The Ladies' Society will hold a social meeting at the Parsonage next Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. It will be a Washington and Lincoln afternoon, and the ladies are asked to bring something interesting about them. Mrs. William Putnam and Mrs. Conrad Shumway are the committee.

Prayer service Thursday at 7 p. m. The music for next Sunday: Prelude, Fantasia Tours Anthem, "A Prayer for our Native Land" Maunders Offertory, Andante Lachner Postlude, Chant Triumphant Toul
J. A. Lytle, Pastor.

Summary of Visits.

Nursing visits	58
Infant Welfare visits	20
Pre-natal	10

Aside from bedside nursing two short talks were given on Personal Hygiene, one in the Goshen school while the other was given to the grades in the High School building. The baby weighing was held Jan. 26 with only two babies out. We do hope the weather will permit more babies at the next weighing, which will be held at Carl Slack's Feb. 16. We have one new arrival in town this month, Myrtle Phoebe Eastman born Jan. 29th, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eastman.
 Respectfully submitted,
 L. Kelley Davis.
